GRAND ARMY ENCAMPMENT OPENS IN FANEUIL HALL

Retiring Department Commander Calls Lee's Statue at Capitol an Insult.

Statuary Hall the figure of Lee, not a citizen, but in the uniform of a United States General.

"It would be an insult to the memory of the men who gave their lives for their country, and the Union veterans who have survived the war, and who still cherish a love for the flag they fought under, to place the statue of Robert E. Lee, in the hall of fame, as if I would teach the coming generations that the man who fought to destroy his country deserves the high esteem the nation can bestow."

Ranks Thinned by Death.

If the present action the points of this department last made against the acceptance of the statue is followed by the other departments, there is no doubt that the offensive figure will be withdrawn."

Commander Parker said that he had been in this department 12,394, a falling off from the total of 10,000. He said that the death rate has increased from 721 in 1891 to 1,000 in 1909. He said that the death rate has increased from 721 in 1891 to 1,000 in 1909. He said that the death rate has increased from 721 in 1891 to 1,000 in 1909.

The Grand Army of the Republic has long since reached its peak, and with diminished numbers is slowly passing down the slope that leads to the valley of death. When we all must pass down the slope, we must pass down the slope of death. When we all must pass down the slope, we must pass down the slope of death.

Only One Skirmish.

The officers of commander and senior vice-commander are filled by advancing the present officers, and consequently there will be only one skirmish of any account.

This will come when the retiring for junior vice-commander is taken up. Three candidates are in the field. George A. Hays, past commander of Post 17 of Chicago, and the commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, served in the army during the war and was for the victor of the battle of Gettysburg. The other two are in the field. George A. Hays, past commander of Post 17 of Chicago, and the commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, served in the army during the war and was for the victor of the battle of Gettysburg.

Entertaining the Chief.

Commander in Chief Van Sant delivered the first address before the Massachusetts veterans this afternoon. The last time he was at Boston was in 1901. He pointed out how the Massachusetts men of the war have become the Massachusetts men of the war. He pointed out how the Massachusetts men of the war have become the Massachusetts men of the war.

After the round of votes taken both in Boston and Lynn and Chelsea, Commander Van Sant will find an equally hard day to survive. The morning will be spent in sight-seeing and in the afternoon he will install the new officers of the Massachusetts department at Faneuil Hall. After the installation he will be the guest of some of the national department officers at the American House. In the evening he will address the Women's Relief Corps at the annual convention.

The Grand Army was met at the station by a delegation of which E. F. Wyer of Worcester was chairman. The group represented the Massachusetts department. POLICE FINISH POLL LISTING

The police list ending today.

It began April 1. For five days 1,400 policemen went from house to house, getting the names of men twenty-one years old or over who were living in Boston as of April 1.

All the names secured by the police were turned into the Back Bay police station today. A corps of 100 girls is tabulating the returns by wards, precincts and streets. It is expected that the tabulations will be completed and the list turned over to the Board of Election Commissioners about April 19. Men who were not listed have from now till April 19 to go to the police and get their names on the list. After April 19, no more names will be added.

BURKE HAS HOPES AND PENNANT AGAIN

WORCESTER, April 6.—Patrons of Juvet Street's Boulevard Park will notice a few improvements that will be for their benefit. The grand stand fans will not be forced to leave the buildings, but will go to their seats by a wide state built behind the grand stand ticket office. Seats have been built at the foot of the stands and before an entrance and will be opened after the games and in case of a rush.

Manager Burke and Secretary John O'Sullivan have completed with Jimmy Colgan, the third member of the Worcester baseball corporation, and manager of the Philadelphia were out. Burke is looking for a few more players to join the Worcester team.

Several of Burke's players have already reported and are practicing daily at the park. All of the Worcester players from Hyde Park and Dorchester and University of Philadelphia were out. Burke is looking for a few more players to join the Worcester team.

STRAIGHT DOPE FOR SPORT FANS

THERE WERE A FEW SURPRISES in the Worcester game last night, the chief one being the victory of Andrew Morris over Al Kahlala. It was only a hard-fought decision at first, but before Flaherty was justified in giving Morris the award. And just to think, it is only about a year since we were reading columns in the newspapers about this Kahlala being a coming champion. He looked like a kind of chess when he first showed here, and his appearance hasn't changed much.

AND I KNOW THAT I'M GOING TO get a lot of letters about that decision in the Philadelphia game. A large and thoughtful crowd has never seen anything that Kahlala did, but they are wrong for every point against him. Personally, I don't believe Kahlala would have been given the award if he had been given a draw, but there was no chance of Kahlala getting the award and the referee was in a better position to see than a lot of us who looked on.

R. L. O'BRYEN, THE BIRD BOY, will play Washington in Boston on April 18, this being their first appearance here this season in a regular schedule game. They play a game here with Hartford on April 12.

MURONEY SURE HE WILL PITCH FOR PHILLIES

IT WAS A SURPRISE, BUT ALLEN, who was a work for Allen. This is borne out by the following, which is taken from the Philadelphia Enquirer's account of the game:

"In the first inning, Allen pitched a good game. He was a work for Allen. This is borne out by the following, which is taken from the Philadelphia Enquirer's account of the game:
